EEVIEW OF NEW BOOKS. HE CRITTENDEN COMMERCIAL ARITHMETIC AND BUSINESS MANUAL. By John Gross-beck. S. H. Crittenden & Co., No. 637 Chesnut

This work contains the matured judgment Professor Groeebeck as to what is most cessary in training for commercial life. It is a at and substantial volume, comprehensive d thoroughly practical. It treats of not ly calculations, but also of all forms of per money, and is invaluable as an auxiliary a learner. It is a text-book of rare merit, d will doubtless be generally adopted in all r business colleges. It contains nothing nich is superfluous, and yet has everything at can be required in such a book.

TE HISTORY OF PENDENNIS. By William M. Thackeray: Harper & Brothers. Without any exception, the book before us the cheapest work we have ever seen. It printed in very large type. It is on good per. It is filled with steel illustrations, d with all these advantages it is sold for e amazing sum of $1.25. Too much credit not be given to Messrs. Harper for the style which the work is gotten up, and for the sire they show to place the works of the great irist within the reach of every one who a desire to read his productions. The ition is for sale by T. B. Peterson & Bros., mar Expectations, Author's Edition, By marles Dickens, Philadelphia: T. B. Peter-on & Bros,

The May instalment of the Author's Edition Charles Dickens' works comes to us in the ape of "Great Expectations." It is issued the same handsome style as its predecessors. and in rich emerald cloth, with the handme medallion head of Dickens on the side d filled with splendid illustrations, it preits the popular works of that most popular er in a form as attractive and as cheap as put forth from the presses of our hers. "Great Expectations," one of the t, and also one of the best of the works of great novelist, will be doubly acceptable ause of its vigorous and characteristic pic-

Alfred Creigh, L.L. D. J. B. Lippincott & Co. comprehensive history of the Knights nplar of Pennsylvania, with a list of all the mbers, and a sketch of the laws and origin each Commandery, is laid before the public Dr. Creigh. It is almost entirely a compiion, and therefore has little opportunity for y literary display. Its authenticity is ached for by the highest officers of the der; and to every one who belongs to the sociation it is prima facie evidence of his embership. It is handsomely issued.
